The first born of FX series is meant to be for sporty boaters. It is equipped with outboard engines and its hull is studied to offer great performance with total safety, even with rough seas. It is a boat marrying action with luxury, thanks to refined color selections, materials and shapes making a real entertaining area on the sea. For these reasons, FX270 offers both a “Leisure” or a “Fishing” version, thanks to its wide and versatile deck. The bow contains an surprisingly big storage, specifically equipped to host fenders, sport and safety equipments. The open space, ideal for fishing, can be equipped with an additional sofa to create a dinette. The helm, high and well protected, is integrated with the console and the main windshield structure. Below deck is a dressing room with WC, completing the equipment of this boat, made for who is looking for a sporty and elegant adventure mate.

Color creates identity, it is a vehicle of emotion and an alphabet of beauty. The concept of luxury proposed by Capoforte starts from the design of its boats and reaches the colors, materializing the intimate thoughts of each owner. For this reason, Capoforte offers ample possibilities for chromatic customization of its models, thanks to a rich palette of shades with a contemporary taste, to choose from and through which to make each boat unique and precious. Because the energy of an adventure at sea is not a black and white photo.
